Re: Purser v. Boehm
Case No. 05-CV-0085-JKS

Dear Brett:

In receipt of your letter dated January 22, 2007.

I have reviewed the responses to your Second Set of Discovery Requests and they appear complete.

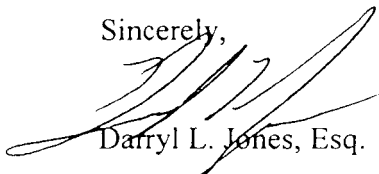

If you would identify which ones you feel are deficient and to what degree, perhaps she can further clarify her response(s).

Further, you have still not provided any disclosures in this matter, have never properly responded to the Plaintiff's Second Set of Discovery Request nor has your client properly responded to the Plaintiff's Third Set of Discovery Requests. You have refused to have your client sign under seal due to the misconception on your part that since your client has essentially denied all allegations, he is under no obligation to declare that his statements are true and accurate under oath.

In your responses to the Third Discovery Requests, your client still has not signed affirming the responses.

I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Darryl L. Jones, Esq.
